Dear Elliot,

Thank you for the domain name consulting services you recently provided to Corky & Company LLC. Your assistance to help us develop a branding strategy and the acquisition of the associated domain name, iClothing.com, is greatly appreciated.

Your knowledge of the domain industry and key contacts is extremely impressive. What you accomplished for us in a few days would have literally taken weeks of effort on our own behalf. Your advice to forego our planned purchase of a few dozen mediocre domain names and instead acquire a couple of category defining domains was invaluable.

After our initial development of KidsCoats.com and KidsSwimwear.com, I'm looking forward to begin development of iClothing.com. You were extremely pleasant to work with and I'm sure we will engage your services again soon.

Sincerely,

Alan. F Macomber
President
